

WALDORF SUMMER CAMP OLIB 2010

Where and When: We invite you to join us at the international family Waldorf Summer Camp which is to take place from 1nd to 15th August on the island of Olib.

Location: Olib is a small island located in the Zadar archipelago just east from Silba Island and west of Pag Island. Olib is also the name of the main town on the Island, this historic town dates back to the 10th century and was inhabited by the Roman Empire. There are many archaeological sites scattered around the town which can be explored. Island of Olib is best known for its wines, olive oils and cheeses, its cheese culture it shares with its neighbour Island of Pag. Olib is an island of pedestrians, with no cars or motorcycles. There are few restaurants, bars, a shop, post office, exchange office and tourist board office. It has many lovely coves and beaches for swimming and boating.

Activities: We have prepared a number of workshops for children and parents: painting, singing, dance, eurhythmics, circus and yoga. Some of our activities and gathering will take place in a local school yard and some in other places provided by the generous Olib community. In addition to creative and educational contents enriching our joint vacations, our favourite aim is to experience, together with our children, the joy of a regular human contact through live word, movement, music, and other activities.

Participation fee: Participation fee is EUR 100 per person and is payable regardless of participation in workshops and/or shorter stay, including children aged between 5 and 18. Families with two, three or more children may have following discounts: for the second or third child aged from 5-7, 50%; for children aged above 7, 20% discount for the second child, 40% for the third child, 80% for the fourth child, and the fifth child is free of participation fee.

Accommodation: We will be placed in several houses with baths and kitchen. The price for bed will be EUR 15. Lunch will be organized in the restaurant near the beach. There in a nice olive garden we will have our meeting point. The price for lunch will be 50 kunas (app. EUR 7) and for kids we will have a discount: till 6 yrs. 40%, and till 12yrs. 20%.
